* PRM's Julia V. Taft Refugee Fund is intended to meet gaps in refugee assistance that can be supported by quick impact projects of up to $25,000 that are not addressed by international organizations or non-governmental organizations receiving U.S. government funding. In accordance with the U.S. Grand Bargain commitment to support local and national responders, Taft funding is awarded by U.S. embassies to non-governmental organizations, with a strong preference for local organizations.
